Announcing Downtown's Newest Businesses

COLORADO SPRINGS, CO. Remember the days when Downtown Colorado Springs had a vibrant auction and you could find high quality treasures for your home or office? Those days will soon return with the opening of Auction House 109 and Little London Market located under the Colorado Avenue Bridge at 109 S. Sierra Madre.

AUCTION HOUSE 109 will begin the 2012 auction season in late January hosting monthly auctions at its newly renovated space. We offer high quality auction items for home or business needs. Auction House 109 is currently accepting goods for its upcoming auctions. Reach us at 719.632.5588 to arrange pick-up of your items for auction.

Watch for more information about our open house and inaugural auction.

LITTLE LONDON MARKET is a consignment shop featuring higher end home furnishings, artwork, decorator items and a limited line of high quality clothing. Find a unique piece that fits the perfect space in your home or build a new look and feel for a room with pieces that fit your taste. Items consigned to Little London Market will be displayed and available for immediate purchase. Please call us at 719.632.5588 to consign to Little London Market.

In Spring 2012, Little London Market will add an open air market. With local vendors displaying their wares and offering farm fresh produce, Little London Market is sure to be the place to enjoy Colorado Springs' temperate climate. After you've finished shopping, sit at a table on our dock and enjoy a cup of coffee while you soak in the Colorado sun and the majesty of Colorado's mountains.

The Auction House and Market will offer high quality household, business items and clothing, allowing you to reuse, recycle and repurpose items of value. Join your friends and meet new friends as you peruse the items for sale in the open air market. We also offer appraisals, packing, staging and decorating services.

We look forward to serving you!
